...and when we have been excited quite enough, we curl up and go to sleep... and Pooh, sitting wakeful a little longer on his chair by our pillow, thinks Grand Thoughts to himself about Nothing, untill he, too, closes his eyes and nods his head, and follows us on tip-toe into the forest. There, still, we have magic adventures, more wonderful than any I told you about; but how, when we wake up in the morning, they are gone before we can catch hold of them. How did the last one begin? "One day when Pooh was walking in the Forest there were one-hundred and seven cows on a gate..." No, you see, we have lost it. It was the best, I think. Well, here are some of the other ones, all that we shall remember now. But, of course, it isn't really Good-bye, because the Forest will always be there...and everyone who is Friendly with Bears can find it.

MAURICE BLEIFELD, Principal

June 1971

Dear Graduate,

Congratulations on completing your high school education.

During your days at Martin Van Buren High School, you were equipped with knowledge, skills and abilities. You were exposed to an understanding of the complex world about you. You dipped into the treasure trove of learning that has accumulated through the ages. You experienced the values of good human relations. You were challenged with the art of clear thinking. You learned about the ideals of our American heritage.

As you turn the pages of this yearbook, you have a good view of the role the school has played in your life. And you can also perceive your own role in the life of the school.

You are in a position to appreciate, in the words of Shakespeare, that:

"All the world's a stage,
And all the men and women, merely players."

As you move into the world of tomorrow, our school has prepared you to act, both alone and with many, in shaping the success of your role, as well as the stage of the future.

All good wishes for personal fulfillment and happiness!

Sincerely,

Maurice Bleifeld

Administrative Assistants

Thank you for this opportunity to offer my sincerest congratulations on your graduation from 'V.B.'

The major regret that I endure each year is that my role as assistant principal in charge of administration and organization does not permit me the every day contact with students that is enjoyed by other members of our staff. I do recall with pleasure many meetings that I participated in with The Student Council, The Advisory Council, your Senior Class Officers, and with individual students as the occasion warranted. What impressed me most was your collective and individual concern for human rights and social values rather than just for materialistic gains. You have evidenced a maturity in these attitudes that bodes well for your future role, whatever role, whatever that may be.

May your graduation be but the beginning of a new phase of your life. Be involved! As you might phrase it: "Don't cop out—make the scene!" If you go to college, work hard; if you are going into employment, do more than punch a timecard. Wherever you are, join unions, civic associations, community groups, etc. Be part of your world—big or small—and help to make it a better one!

Finally, may I wish all of you HAPPINESS, HEALTH, SUCCESS, and PEACE.

MARTIN B. KAYE

In the past few weeks, many of you have come to thank us for all that Van Buren has given to you. I welcome this opportunity to express our gratitude to you. Are you aware of the many ways in which you have enriched us?

For the warm friendship you have tendered us, for the abundant occasions you have given us to serve, for the frequent joy we have experienced over your triumphs in growth and achievement, we truly thank you. And certainly we have profited from your grave insistence that we reexamine our old modes of thought and action in the turbulent world we share.

I address this message to many of you whom I have known personally and to all of you collectively whom I have felt as a young and vibrant presence in our school. We shall miss you.

Already I think of you on your way to new and exciting adventures elsewhere, and I follow you in spirit, confident that others will cherish, as I do, the gifts you bring.

And after all the fantasies;

After all the dragon haunted kingdoms with their tarnished pale faces and bright crimson flames,

the fantasy that will endure

throughout all ages

is the story of the single isolated man.

His life is a surrealistic wandering,

an enchanted voyage of the search for elusive meanings

in a life of emptiness.

For a goal where none is to be found of life and death and all that lies in between

Of love and hate and a seeking for oneself

What has been gained and what has been lost?

What is more real than the fantasies of dreams?

JACOB WEINSTEIN

You introduced me to the bloody games
the horror and imaginable jokes of men
you showed me
a way of jokes and reality turned to non reality in the glass cage of deathly white we shattered the shrines and built a Fence

I built my own shrine.

You showed me
the only way to touch what i can't see and feel what i cannot know.
The imaginable reality turned into a joke in the deathly cage of glass white.

Ideas place roots in my head.

And I can see. . .

fair-haired nymphs darting in and out of trees, enveloped in their own veil of magic, chased by prancing horses on a hunt-riderless.

Birds flitting here and there.

A brass band takes up their pathways followed by a princess daintily picking her way between the pebbles and trees.

Young children give chase to see this phenomenon of beauty and passion, and I join them in a game of tag.

UNTITLED

Ceramic details,
Englazed in salt.
Streaked out upon the horizon of nowhere

Never ending sea,
Again, now, forever,
Massive battles building,
of life.

Plastic covered chronicles Enraged with spirit Blacked out in darkness
a creation
Today. . .

Morning COMES, THe weary MOON

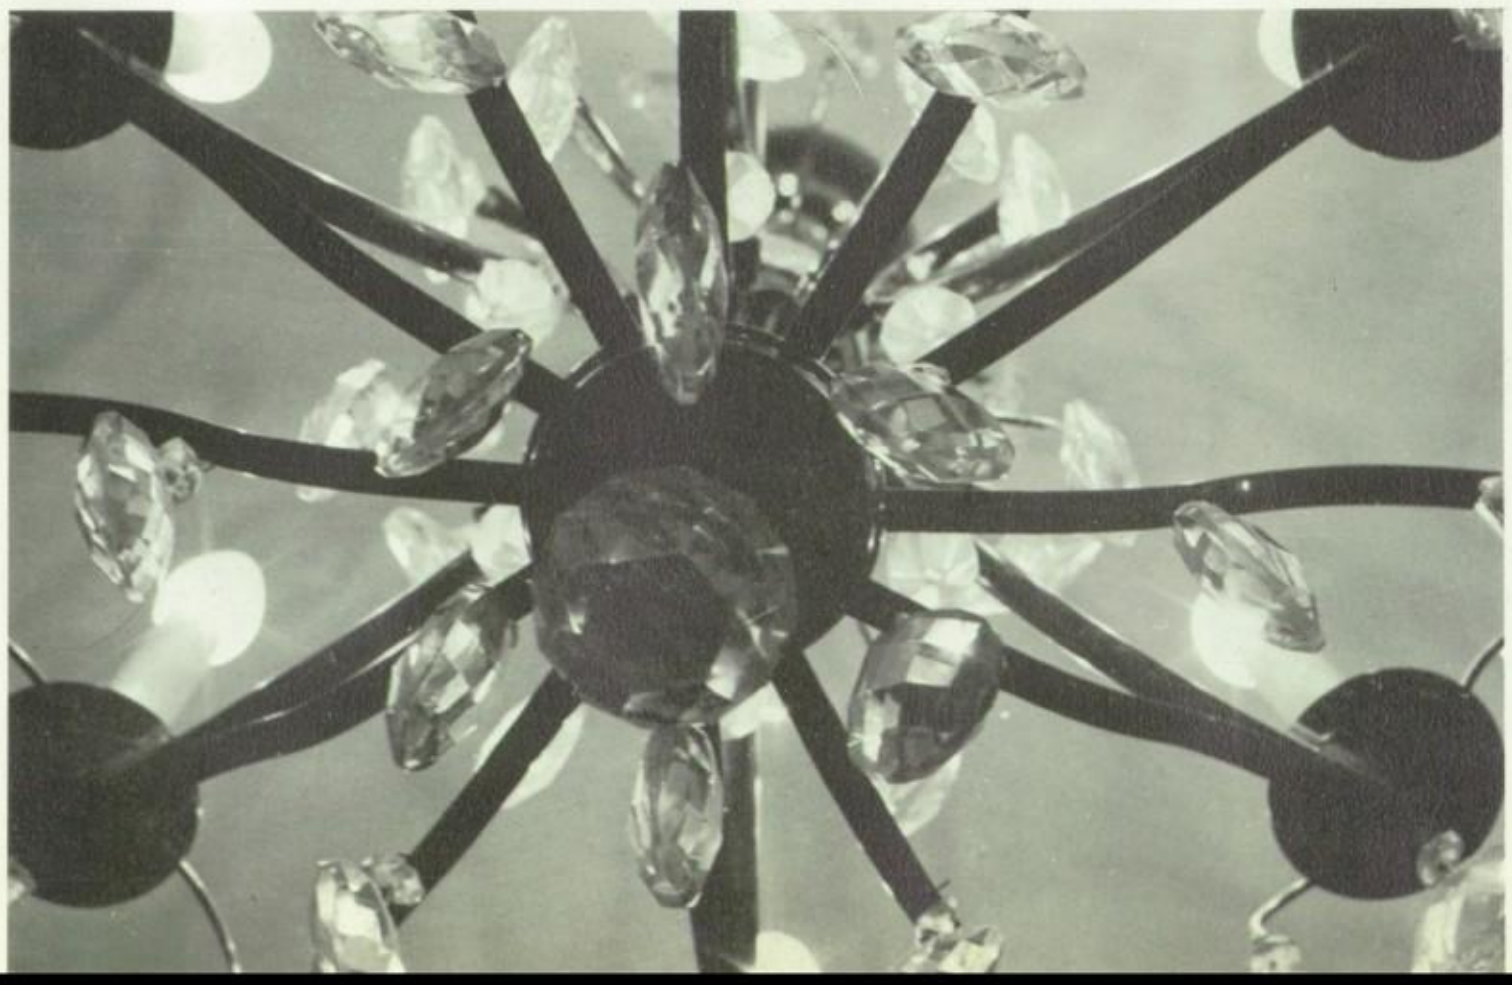
e.e. cummings

"To and fro we leap,
And chase the frothy bubbles."

WILLIAM BUTLER YEATS



While God waits for His temple to be built of love, men bring stones.

The world speaks to me in pictures,
my soul answers in music.

Leaves are silences around flowers which are their words.

From the solemn gloom of the temple children run out to sit in the dust, God watches them play and forgets the priest.

In the drowsy dark caves of the mind dreams build their nest with fragments dropped from day's caravan.

The child ever dwells in the mystery of ageless time, unobscured by the dust of history.

Mind's underground moths grow filmy wings and take a farewell flight in the sunset sky.

One who was distant came near to me in the morning, and still nearer when taken away by night.

The glow-worm while exploring the dust never knows that stars are in the sky.

The picture—a memory of light treasured by the shadow.

The centre is still and silent in the heart of an eternal dance of circles.

Days are coloured bubbles that float upon the surface of fathomless night.

HEARD OFTEN AROUND THE FUTURA OFFICE

Whadaya mean, you lost it?
We can't use that one. Jacob looks like a vampire.
Go to the bathroom already!
Who put my name on that pass?
Oh, Peggie, don't be ridiculous.
Should we use dark blue on light blue, or dark brown on light brown?
Miss Hydzik, tell him to get his hands off of me!!
I'm Tarzan, she's Jane, and Eileen's Cheetah.
. . . But she didn't O.K. it. so what Karl who's your girlfriend? Maria who?
I cut his head off!!. . . I didn't like him anyway.
When are we getting out of here?
Maletzsky, where are you?
Oh! COOKIE. Booga, Booga!
Watch out for that crazy lady in the hall.
Can you get me out of eighth period?
We're short ten pages?
Look at the junk from last year's.
Go down and get some coffee. . . . . light, without cream.
You jerk. Whatya do that for?
Oh, I love you too!
Who's got a ruler?
Who stole my pencil?
Whose foot is this?
I can't find it. . . . . not again!
Miss Hydzik. . . . . WE LOVE YOU!

Our thanks to Mr. Groh, who gave up his afternoons for us.
Thanks to Peggie Lowenberg for the cover.
Thanks to Bev Feingold for the hand-lettered titles.
Thanks to Adrienne Giannelli, Janet Saevitz, Yvonne Van Gent, and Cathy Visconte for their art contributions.
Thanks to the night custodial staff for cleaning our mess.
Thanks to Miss Hydzik for being Miss Futura 1971.

General Activities

It's Academic

It's Academic Team, l to r: Richard Bochner, Paul Deutsch (captain), Jonathan Hasson.

The It's Academic Team is composed of students whose general knowledge is well above average. The team is drilled in a wide range of subjects. This year the team competed against Cardozo High School and the Bronx High School of Science. Bronx High School of Science came in first, Van Buren second, and Cardozo came in third.

Boro Discussion

The Boro-wide Discussion group is designed to bring together students who are interested in social studies. They discuss problems which they are interested in. Students are selected from contemporary problems classes and the S.O.

The Chess Club meets every Wednesday. At that time the members engage in round robin chess tournaments and experiment with new chess moves.

Chess Club

Red Cross Youth

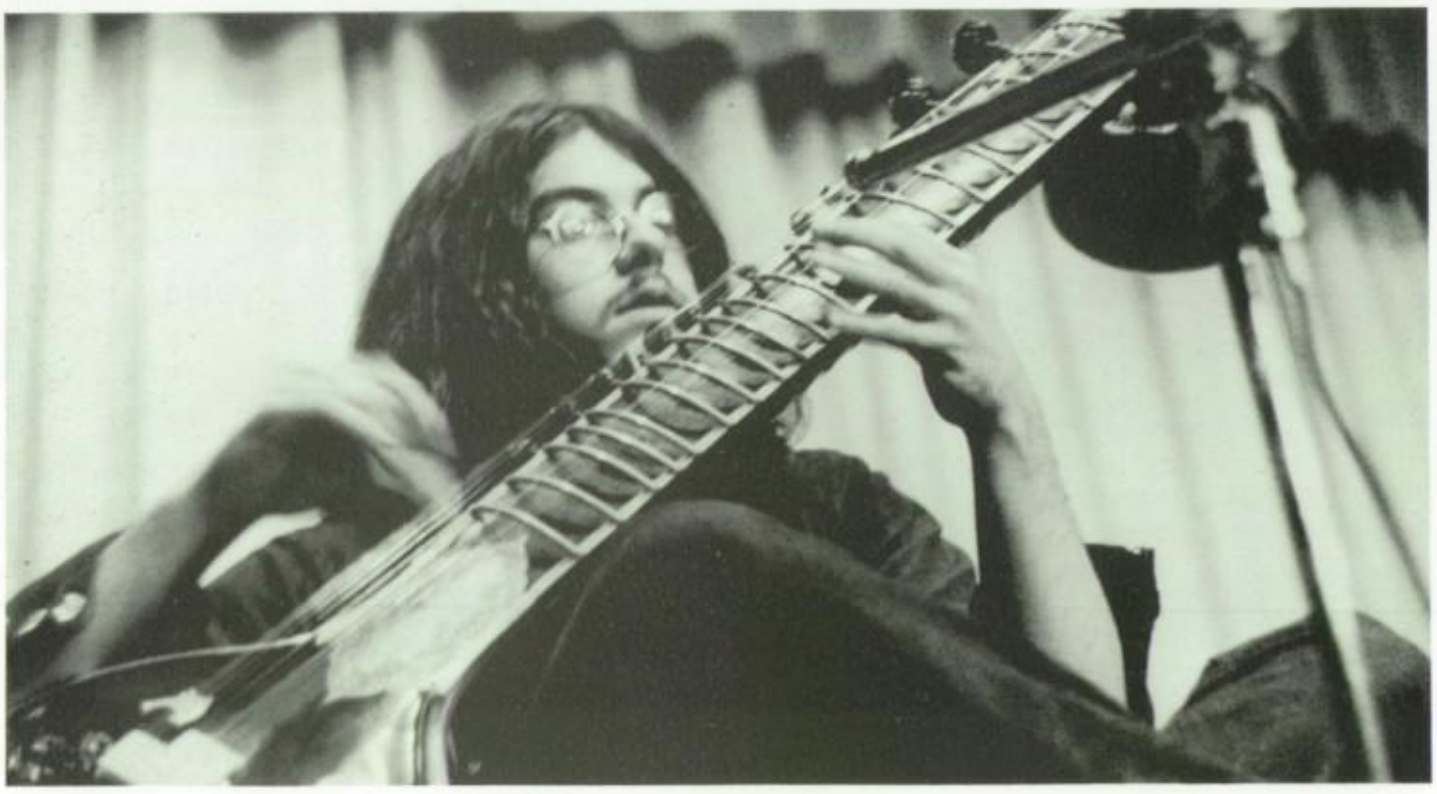
Students interested in giving service to their school and community can join the Red Cross Youth Council. This year a drive for East Pakistan was sponsored.

The Music Department offers a large selection of courses. In addition to required music, there are many electives one can take.

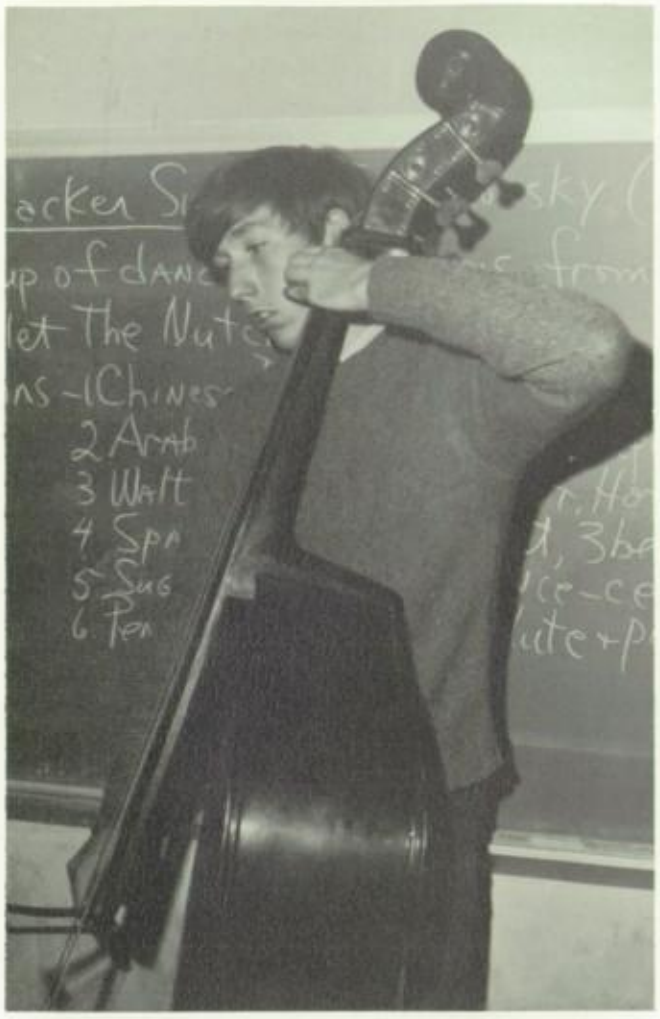
The aim of the Jazz Workshop is to introduce rudimentary theory, harmony, and ear training, with a direct approach to jazz. All styles of jazz are analyzed and various performances, musical assemblies included among them, are given throughout the year.

The Mixed Chorus, Girls' Chorus, and Boys' Chorus all use the voice as a musical instrument. Their performances include January Graduation and Spring Concert.

The Senior Band and Senior Orchestra are two separate bands that develop the talent and skill of their members through performance. They perform at assemblies, concerts, and certain other special programs.



Musical Activities



Mr. Stracher — senior band, jazz workshop
Mr. Berman — senior orchestra
Mr. Kupferberg — girls' chorus
Mrs. Pierce — girls' chorus, mixed chorus
Mr. Santonocito — mixed chorus, boys' chorus

Sing

We look at our three years, retain all the memories quite clear,
We'd like it if we could share some of these here,
The leaving's so sad, with us we will take all those memories we've gained—
In spirit and mind, see if these old thoughts, still, remain with you.

Now our voices fade, Vic'try we will soon seek;
Spirit, power we have shown; Through our glee and through our sorrows
We shall cherish those wonderful days, If we lose there's still tomorrow.
Then as Juniors we'll start a new phase.
Glow V.B. spirit, sophomores now prevailing—Conquer all as BLUE COATS did.
When we battled with the British,
Our wives and their gall—
That spark of vic'try shown through all.

Van Buren, we sing of Junior year,
Of what we've learned here, and what's to come,
Sharing all the, Mem'ries we hold close, strive to the utmost
That we could achieve,
Broadway holds the heights of a lifetime to share with all, and Juniors
Here we'll climb and never fall.

Seniors seventy-one we'd like to tell you how we feel.
We thank you for our meaningful and short stay; These three years flew by Weaving a unique story of seniors here,
For someone to take, and cherish the moments never had again.

Our last lap we're running, now someone will soon start anew,
I hope that they find their own key to all life,
The winning is fine, if when losing you will continue to grow,
Learn what our sing means,
Uphold spirit and soul
And you will forever win!

On December 10, 1962, John Steinbeck delivered an address on the occasion of his acceptance of the Nobel Prize for literature. John Steinbeck has since passed on, leaving words and thoughts which must be passed on. . .

". . . We have usurped many of the powers we once ascribed to God. Fearful and unprepared, we have assumed lordship over the life and death of the whole world of all living things. The danger and the glory and the choice finally rest in man. The test of his perfectability is at hand."

Having taken God-like power, we must seek in ourselves for the responsibility and the wisdom we once prayed some deity might have. Man himself has become our greatest hazard and our only hope. So that today, St. John the Apostle may well be paraphrased:

"In the end is the word, and the word is man, and the word is with men."

To complain of the age we live in,
to murmur at the present possessors of power, to lament the past
to conceive extravagant hopes of the future, are the common dispositions of the greatest part of mankind.

This was written by Edmund Burke in the late 18th century. It seems as if it could have been written yesterday as it is so relevant to today's times. I believe it is characteristic of all mankind but probably most characteristic of youth; for if you cannot aspire for a better world when you are young and idealistic, then when can you?

Cheerleaders

The Cheerleaders lend color and enthusiasm to our basketball games, and have always been, and rightfully so, the symbols of school spirit at Van Buren.

Leaders

The Van Buren Leaders' Organization is a closely knit group of girls possessing exceptional abilities in sports of all kinds. To qualify for a position in this exclusive club, a girl must go through a rigorous twelve month training course as an LIT and meet required academic standards. As a leader, a girl devotes an extra period a day to assist the teachers in the regular gym classes.

Our track team came in second place in Queens Cross-Country competition and was undefeated in dual meets.

"What is a Caucus-race?" said Alice. . .

"Why," said the Dodo, "the best way to explain it is to do it." (And, as you might like to try the thing yourself some winter-day, I will tell you how the Dodo managed it.)

First it marked out a race-course, in a sort of circle, ("the exact shape doesn't matter," it said,) and then all the party were placed along the course, here and they began running when they like, and left off when they liked, so that it was not easy to know when the race was over. However, when they had been running half an hour or so, and were quite dry again, the Dodo suddenly called out "The race is over!" and they all crowded round it, panting and asking "But who has won?"

Swim Teams

The theory of evolution states that at one time in man's past he was in a form that was similar to a fish. If there is any fact in this statement our swimming team proves this beyond a doubt. Their record, despite certain technical difficulties has been unsurpassed since our ancestors left their watery homes.

Farewell to you and the youth I have spent with you.

It was but yesterday we met in a dream.

You have sung to me in my aloneness, and I of your longings have built a tower in the sky.

But now our sleep has fled and our dream is over, and it is no longer dawn.

The noontide is upon us and our half waking has turned to fuller day, and we must part.

If in the twilight of memory we should meet once more, we shall speak again together and you shall sing to me a deeper song.

And if our hands should meet in another dream we shall build another tower in the sky.
